

Director of Youth and Family Faith Formation
New Life Lutheran Church (ELCA)

This position will serve New Life Lutheran Church in Pearland TX, a vibrant suburb of Houston. With a strong economy and easy access to Houston's business and medical centers, Pearland was ranked as a top 15 fastest growing city in 2014. Pearland has a large population youth and families with 21,000 in the local, award winning school district. New Life is a multigenerational, emerging ministry with a commitment to youth and family programming. This position, while focusing on High School Youth, will also act as a leader in the congregation for youth and families of all ages. Additionally, the Director will lead youth ministries beyond the congregation: outdoor ministries, national and synodical gatherings, local conference partnerships, and community service. A successful applicant for this position will be a high energy, flexible leader with a passion for working with youth.
